
Application - Erasmus+ - KA152-YOU Individual Assessment

Project Information

Beneficiary organisation name

Project Title:

Project Code:

Assignment ID:

Version:

Expert name:

Language:

I. ASSESSMENT CONCLUSION

Scoring Summary

II. ASSESSMENT

Quality of project design 0/30

Relevance, Rationale and Impact 0/40

Quality of project management 0/30

COMMENTS

Comments for the applicant

Internal comments for the NA

Recommendations on grant reduction for the NA

TYPOLGY QUESTIONS

Newcomers and less experienced organisations

- Does the applicant organisation belong to the category of 'newcomers' as defined by the Programme Guide?
- Does the applicant organisation belong to the category of 'less experienced organisations' as defined by the Programme Guide?
- Does the applicant organisation belong to the category of 'first time applicants' as defined by the Programme Guide?

Good Practice

- The project can be used in programme promotion as an example of good practice

Dissemination

- There is a need to improve the quality of the (English version) of the project summary

Innovation

- The project is innovative or or has noteworthy innovative elements

Objectives

- The project particularly promotes active citizenship, young people's sense of initiative and youth entrepreneurship
- The project particularly addresses quality, innovation and recognition of youth work
- The project particularly improves the key competences of young people and strengthen their employability
- The project particularly reinforces the links between policy, research and practice

Priorities

- Green: the project/accreditation has a very strong thematic or practical environmental sustainability dimension and could serve as a good example in programme promotion

Inclusion: the project/accreditation has a very strong thematic or practical inclusion dimension and could serve as a good example in promoting the programme's support to participants with fewer opportunities

Digital: the project/accreditation has a very strong thematic or practical digital dimension and could serve as a good example in programme promotion

Other

The project addresses the COVID19 pandemic impact